State farms.

This heading was used only for state-owned farms of the U.S.S.R. prior to 1963. Publications on state farms of the individual Soviet republics were given individual headings, e.g. State farms (Ukraine). Regions were given direct subdivisions, e.g. State farms. Omsk region.

For state farms in other countries, prior to 1963 an appropriate general subject heading was used, e.g. Farm management - Agriculture and socialism - Agriculture and state.
Beginning 1963, this heading is used for state farms in all countries, e.g. State farms. Hungary. State farms. Ukraine.

The Supreme economic council ceased to exist early in 1921, and its name has not appeared on the bulletin after v.2, no. 4, Jan./Feb. 1921; the publication was then transferred to the League of nations at Geneva, but until arrangements were completed it continued to be prepared under the same management as before, though acting on behalf of the League; v.2, nos. 5 and 6 are so prepared. Beginning with v.2, no. 7, 1921, the League assumed full responsibility for the publication, and from that time the t.p. and text are in French and English, and the numbers bear the imprint of the League.
